THE KANSAS COMMISSION ON DISABILITY CONCERNS (KCDC)

Provides policy recommendations to the State of Kansas on changes to laws, regulations and programs that affect people with disabilities. The Commission focuses its efforts on reducing barriers to employment for people with disabilities through many activities at the government and local and community level. KCDC is an informational and referral resource for people who are not sure where to go for their problem or issue.

Centers for Independent Living

Website: www.silck.org
(go to centers)

Centers for Independent Living (CIL) promote the self-reliance of individuals with disabilities through education, advocacy, training and support. The core services provided by all CILs are: individual and systems advocacy, information and referral services, peer counseling, independent living skills and deinstitutionalization. For satellite office locations, call or check the individual CIL websites. Centers may be able to provide services statewide.

Services for Kansans Who are Blind or Visually Impaired

Web site: www.dcf.ks.gov
Go to Agency Information/Rehabilitation Services/Services for people who are blind or visually impaired.

Services for people who are blind or visually impaired are provided through a contact from the Vocational Rehabilitation Services to three groups: Alphapointe Association for the Blind, Kansas City; Envision Vision Rehabilitation Center, Wichita and a consortium of independent living centers headed by Prairie Independent Living Resource Center, Hutchinson. These groups provide services to support independent living and employment. These groups increase capacity in specialized areas such as orientation and mobility, rehabilitation teaching, independent living skills training, Braille instruction and assistive technology.

Community Developmental Disability Organization

Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS)
Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/Services/Services_Index.html

Community Development Disability Organizations (CDDOs) are the single point of entry for an individual or family to obtain services through the developmental disabilities system in Kansas. CDDOs are responsible for determining whether a person qualifies for services, working with the person and/or the person's family or guardian in choosing from service options and referring those persons to other agencies if additional supports are needed.

Community Mental Health Centers

Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/CSP/MH_Index.html

Community Mental Health Centers (CMHCs) are the local coordinating agencies for delivery of public community-based mental health services. CMHCs are administered under the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS). CMHCs are person-centered, value-based providers of mental health and support services for Kansans with mental illness. They assist people with mental illness in living healthy, successful and self-determined lives in their homes and communities.

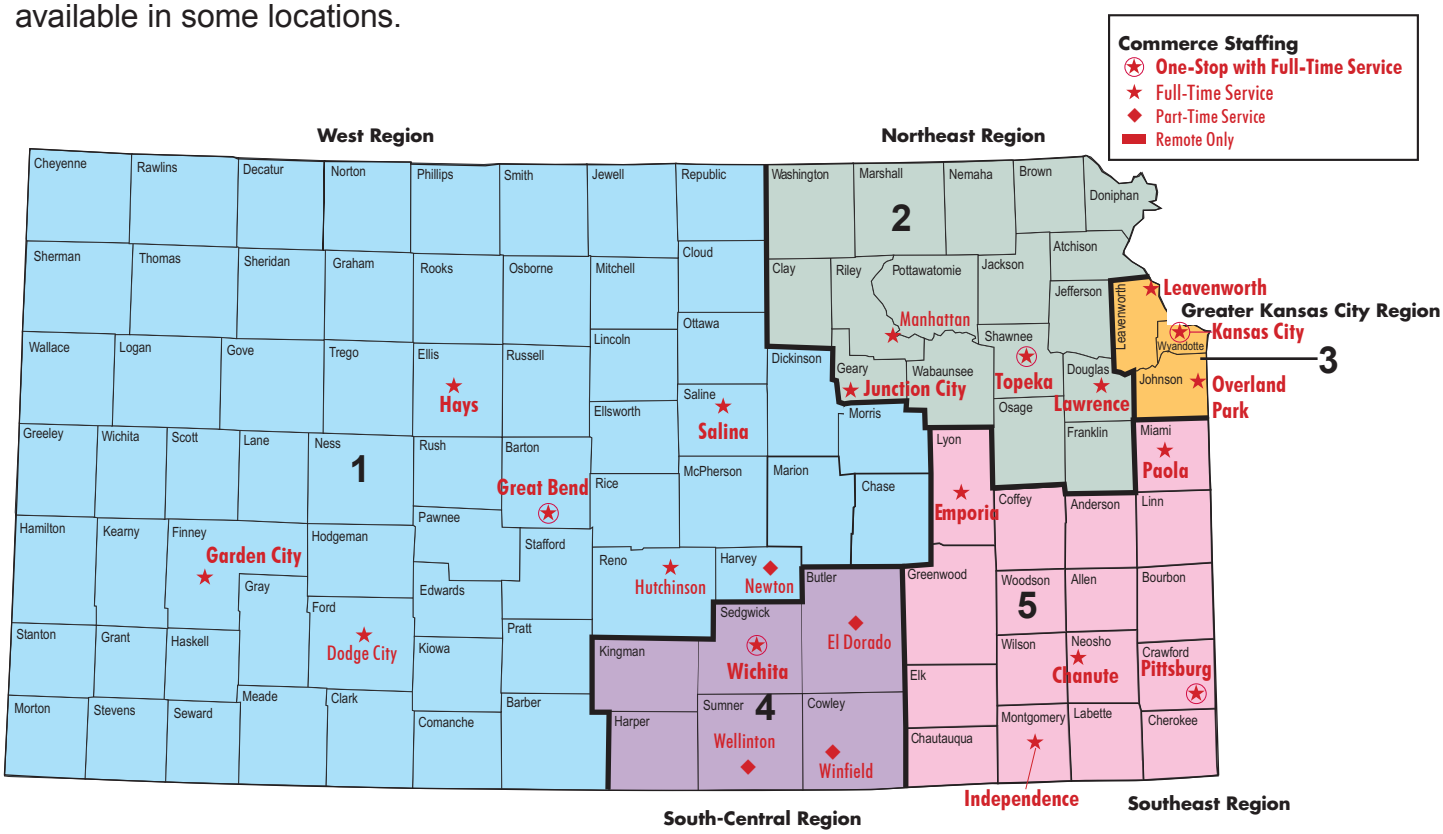
Jobs for Veterans Program

The Kansas Department of Commerce, with grant funding from the U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service, offers employment and training services to eligible veterans. For assistance, contact one of these local workforce centers and talk with the Local Veterans Employment Representative (LVER). The LVER is an employment specialist who has a large reservoir of information about jobs and education/training opportunities, veterans' rights and benefits, laws affecting veterans, employment trends and all services available through the workforce center. The LVER also has information about other services available through other agencies, including veterans' organizations. Disabled Veteran Outreach Program Specialists (DVOPs) are also available in some locations.



Contact your local area one-stop center for information on workforce services near you.
