THE KANSAS COMMISSION ON DISABILITY CONCERNS (KCDC)

Provides policy recommendations to the State of Kansas on changes to laws, regulations and programs that affect people with disabilities. The Commission focuses its efforts on reducing barriers to employment for people with disabilities through many activities at the government and local and community level. KCDC is an informational and referral resource for people who are not sure where to go for their problem or issue.

Centers for Independent Living

Website: www.silck.org
(go to centers)

Centers for Independent Living (CIL) promote the self-reliance of individuals with disabilities through education, advocacy, training and support. The core services provided by all CILs are: individual and systems advocacy, information and referral services, peer counseling, independent living skills and deinstitutionalization. For satellite office locations, call or check the individual CIL websites. Centers may be able to provide services statewide.

Services for Kansans Who are Blind or Visually Impaired

Web site: www.dcf.ks.gov/services/Pages/Map\_BVI.aspx
 Go to Agency Information/Rehabilitation Services/Services for people who are blind or visually impaired.

Services for people who are blind or visually impaired are provided through a contact from the Vocational Rehabilitation Services to three groups: Alphapointe Association for the Blind, Kansas City; Envision Vision Rehabilitation Center, Wichita and a consortium of independent living centers headed by Prairie Independent Living Resource Center, Hutchinson. These groups provide services to support independent living and employment. These groups increase capacity in specialized areas such as orientation and mobility, rehabilitation teaching, independent living skills training, Braille instruction and assistive technology.

Community Mental Health Centers

Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/CSP/MH\_Index.html

Community Mental Health Centers (CMHCs) are the local coordinating agencies for delivery of public community-based mental health services. CMHCs are administered under the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS). CMHCs are person-centered, value-based providers of mental health and support services for Kansans with mental illness. They assist people with mental illness in living healthy, successful and self-determined lives in their homes and communities.

Area Agencies on Aging

Website: http://www.kdads.ks.gov/SeniorServices/SeniorServices\_Index.html

Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) are grassroots organizations built to respond to the needs of their local communities. Each AAA manages programs and services designed to meet the needs of its particular area. Each agency's mission is to deliver easily accessible, top-quality services that sustain healthy lifestyles and support self-sufficiency in the aging population.

Kansas Money Follows the Person

Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/CSP/MFP/MFP\_index.html

Money Follows the Person (MFP) is a joint federal-state program partnership grant. Its purpose is to help individuals currently living in institution settings to choose to transition into community base services. Individuals must reside in a nursing facility (INP) or an ICF/MR (private or state hospital) for individuals with developmental disabilities. Individuals must qualify for medicaid; and for one or the following four(4) Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) waiver programs: Frail Elder Waiver (FE), Physical Disabilities waiver (PD), Intellectual/Developmental Disability waiver (I/DD), or Traumatic Brain injury waiver (TB).

Aging and Disability Resource Center

Website: www.ksadrc.org

The ADRC is designed to empower older adults and persons with disabilities to make informed choices about their services and supports. This will streamline access to those services and ensure their individual needs will be met. The ADRC can refer individuals to a array of in-home, community-based and institutional services, as well as provide decision-making support through a service called Options Counseling. The ADRC is a trusted source of information where people of all ages, abilities and income levels—and their caregivers—can go to obtain assistance in planning for their future long-term service and support needs.

Jobs for Veterans Program

The Kansas Department of Commerce, with grant funding from the U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service, offers employment and training services to eligible veterans. For assistance, contact one of these local workforce centers and talk with the Local Veterans Employment Representative (LVER). The LVER is an employment specialist who has a large reservoir of information about jobs and education/training opportunities, veterans' rights and benefits, laws affecting veterans, employment trends and all services available through the workforce center. The LVER also has information about other services available through other agencies, including veterans' organizations. Disabled Veteran Outreach Program Specialists (DVOPs) are also available in some locations.

Contact your local area one-stop center for information on workforce services near you.
