Dr. Steve Miller – Disabled Vietnam veteran and advocate for people with MS and has a relationship with Parsons. Today at 11:00 Parsons will have a Chicken and Noodle Carry-Out. Service dog experience – was at a game at Allen Field House. There was a little dog at the game but was not in control even though the it had a vest on. The next game he went to the dog has head phones on to dampen the noise from the band and the dog ws under better control because its hearing wasn't being hurt.

Rick Shellenbarger – two sons that were on Payroll Plus of Kansas transitioned over to Life Patterns in Topeka. They had problems with Authenticare payroll issues, but that is worked out with Life Patterns. Daughter-in-law applied to be on the IDD waiver almost five years ago, but just now had a meeting about being on the waiver. She is still not receiving waiver services.

Anthony Fadale – We've been involved with emergency management with snow helping people with issues like parking spaces and access aisles not being cleared, but the city is doing well to keep up with those issues. Last legislative session they passed a bill that reconstituted the Information Technology Executive Committee (ITEC) which sets policy. They recently approved amendments to the IETC policy 1210 which bring the policy into line with the requirements of Section 508. He commended Senator Billinger who is on the ITEC and he supported it.

Rene Hart – representing public transit unit with Kansas Department of Transportation (DOT.) Reviewing 5310 and 5311 transit grants want to make those announcements in March. Transit Day at the Capitol is March 27th. Completed coordinated plan and should be released at the end of February. New Secretary of DOT is Julie Lorenz.

Craig Knutson – Represents Kansas Council on Developmental Disabilities. New chairperson Kathy Keck. Grant with UMKC Institute of Human Development on expanding charting the Life Course Framework in Kansas. Legislative bill introduced about the supported decision making. Two supported decision-making conferences in Topeka and Salina. Website portal is open to submit their annual reports.

Susan Weidenbach – New Secretary of Commerce David Toland. We are charter members of the Transition Transformers Coalition. They are also members on a short-term Dept. of Education work group that will meet on 2/14 will to establish Board of Education (BOE) policy that will ensure all parts of the law regarding Individual Education Plans (IEPS) and transition services are actually implemented in the local school districts. Retain grant received from return to work or stay at work that works to help people stay at work or return to work either at their old job or a new job. Working with the Susan B. Allen Hospital in El Dorado and the Workforce Alliance to identify people who have been injured or had an illness and what their work duties are and if there are any rehabilitation changes that need to be made to allow that person to come back to work even with an accommodation. They have 18 months to demonstrate the effectiveness of the project and then 4 of the award recipients will receive a 5-year grant.

Beth Van Vleck – Statewide manager of Pre-ETS for Kansas Rehabilitation Services (KRS). Department for Children and Families Interim Secretary Laura Howard appointed Deputy Secretary Tanya Keys. KRS continues to work on getting people into services quicker. Pre-employment services they continue collaborate with the Foster Care services. They also continue to work with school districts to connect students with disabilities to Pre-Employment Transition Services (Pre-ETS).

Cheryl Laaker Manager for Community Engagement with Sunflower Health Plan. She is also the coordinators for Project Search (13 sites). The newest in Shawnee Mission is doing well for their first year. Project Search is a transition program for youth transitioning from high school to work.
